A RUSSIAN EXECUTION.

One of the most revolting scenes recorded in the annals of modern executions took place on the 15th of May in the Russian city of Mohileff

Six months before an altercation had occurred at the dinner table of the Hotel de l'Europe, in the same place, between two officers of the Second Regiment of the Imperial Guards-Col. Rampos Sojinok and Lieutenant Ibalos Prizzik.

The latter, it appears, was engaged to be mar ried to the daughter of the landlord of the above mentioned hotel, Anna Mirasky. He was foodly attached to the handsome girl, and looked upon all the attempts on the part of his comrades to firt with her with undisguised jealousy.

On the 3d of December, 1874, Col. Sojinok had drank considerably before going to dinner. At the table he offered loudly to bet that for the sum of ten thousand dollars Anna Mirasky would sell her virtue to him.

Lieutenant Prizzik, her affianced lover, was not present, but a note, which the girl immediately addressed to him, brought him in a few minutes to the spot.

No sooner had he heard what the colonel had said about Anna, than he seized a cane and administered a terrible castigation to the foulmouthed secundrel. The colonel tried to parry the blows, but the lieutenant did not cease belaboring him until his face presented a sickening appearance.

It was one mass of bruises. The nose of the colonel was broken, and his front teeth were knocked out.

The cries of the chastised officer brought the police to the spot.

Prizzik was arrested and taken to the military prison. Next day he was court martialed by a military commission, consisting exclusively of friends of Col. Sojinok. The trial lasted two hours at the end of which the President of the Court said to Prizzik: "The Court unanimously finds you guilty. It sentences you to be ignominiously expelled from the army, and then suffer death by powder and lead." From this sentence the doomed man appealed to the Czar. Anna Mirasky, his fiancee, went herself on her knees before the Emperor Alexander II. The latter was deeply moved by the fearful appeals of the unfortunate girl, and he promised to take the case into careful consideration. Over five weary months passad, during which time Prizzik, loaded with chains, languished in

On the 14th of May, at length, the military governor of Movileff received orders to have Prizz k executed.

At daybreak the following morning the doomed lover was led out. Two burly corporals immediately fell upon him and tore his uniform from his back. Then they repeatedly struck him and spit in his face.

Staggering under the blows, he was tied to the stake and the death warrant was read to him. He cursed the Char loudly for his injustice, but the roll of drums drowned his voice.

Six soldiers were drawn up in line before him. They fired three volleys at him, but not a bullet hit him. Such an ordeal was too much for the nerves of the poor young fellow. He begged pitcously that an end might be put to his anguish.

The fourth and fifth volleys resulted in his receiving seven wounds. He was still conscious and writhing in indescribable agony. Then a corporal ran up to him, and, putting his musket against his temple, blew out his It was loudly asserted in Mohileff that the first two volleys were fired with blank cartridges, in order to prolong the prisoner's agony.

FACETIÆ.

Chinese is to be taught at a Boston normal school. The girls are determined to be no longer ignorant of what is written on fire cracker packs and tea chests.

A rustic couple, newly married, marched into a drug store and called for soda water. The obliging clerk inquired what syrup they would have in it, when the swain, deliberately leaning over the counter, replied, "Stranger, money is no object to me; put sugar in it.

"Come into the garden, Maud, With a brickbat and a stone; Here's the biggest cat you ever sawed, Gnawing a chicken bone: Run like the mischief, Maud,

I'm with the beast alone!' Lorenzo Day having married Miss Martha Week, a local paper comments:

A Day is made, a Week is lost. But time should not complain-There'll soon be little Days enough

To make the Week again. A famous auctioneer, after exhausting the language of praise in extolling a certain gentleman's park which had to fall uoder his hammer, said he was bound, as an bonest man, not to conceal the drawbacks to the property, which were the litter made by the rose leaves and the perpetual din kept up by the nightingales. A gentleman who had the misfortune to lose his nose was followed by a beggar, who kept exclaiming: "Heaven preserve your honor's eyesight!" The gentleman was at last irritated by his impunity, and said: "Why do you wish my eyesight to be preserved? Nothing ails my eyesight, nor is likely to do." your honor," said the beggar, "but it will be a sad thing if its does, for you will have nothing to rest your spectacles upon. A Milwaukee belle, attending a theatre in that city recently, complained in one of the scenes that the light was too dim to show the acting properly. "Won't you try this glass?" asked her escort, handing her his lorgnette. Hastily covering the suspicious-looking object with her handkerchief, she placed it to her lips, took a long pull, and then handed it back in great disgust, saying : "Why, there ain't a pinned back so tight she couldn't. Old lady peeped over her specs and asked her, "How ong have you been affl cted that way?" young lady blushed and made "a break," by the quart and gallon, in store and for sale je 8 sitting down sideways and helds. sitting down sideways, and holding her knees ap 9 together so tight that she looked as if she had on a one-legged pair of breeches. Old lady noticed her sitting in this sideways, cramped position, and whispered, "Bille, I s'pose; I have had 'em thar myself."
